Sir :

Mr. Lecadre, informs me that you are engaged in the sale of my works, of which he is sole publisher. I shall be happy to see you give all your attention to making a success of this work, and tender you my thanks in advance.

At the same time I am told that other editions than his are in course of publication in America. I have therefore to say to you, authorizing you to repeat it publicly, that Mr. Lecadre's edition is the only one made with my assistance, the only one which has my approval, and that all others are unworthy counterfeits, made to my prejudice, against which I energetically protest.

Accept, sir, the assurance of my high regard,

(signed) G. Meissanier.

Monsieur

M. Lescaudre m'a fait savoir que vous vous occupez de la publication d'une œuvre dont il est le seul éditeur. Je me suis hâté de vous vous donner tous vos soins à cette publication et vous en remercie d'avance.

Mais je suis certain qu'une telle œuvre qu'il a publiée en Amérique d'autres éditions que la sienne.

Je dois vous dire en une autre occasion à la fois aussi publiquement que l'Édition de M. Lescaudre est la seule qui soit faite avec mon concours la seule que j'approuve & que toutes les autres sont d'indigne contrefaçon faite sans permission, contre lesquelles je proteste énergiquement.

Recevez, Monsieur, l'assurance de mon dévouement distingué.

Order for portraits

by "St Merrin"

To Mr. W. M. Macleod. Rec'd.
Curator of the Concord Gallery of Art.
Washington D. C. 12/3/87

Mr. Admiral Goldborough - late in the Fall of 1877 - on the beginning of 1878, carried, in person, to the Concord Art Gallery - two aids of Mr. W. M. Macleod & Mr. Wint - the father and mother of Mr. Goldborough.
They were taken by Mr. Menin a French artist. Mr. W. M.
Macleod asked Mr. Goldborough to loan them to the Art Gallery - as specimens of the works of Mr. Menin. At that time, there had been a revival in Paris of the works of Mr. Menin and M^{rs}. Bonconau wished these Portraits hung in the Art & Gallery - as a specimen of the work of St. Memin -

M^y. Golborough has allowed them to remain there - for some years now.
But having decided to give them to her Nephew
- John, Wint Randall - of Annapolis - a Grandson of her father Wth. Wint - she has authorized him to take them into his possession.
And she writes to inform M^{rs}. Mackay.

Very Respectfully

Elizabeth Wint Golborough.
